Celine Dion thrills full house

By Frank Kiedrowski

Quebec sensation Celine Dion scored the May 14 evening show with songs in a breathtaking performance at Oshkosh's Casino at the Forum.

There, on the first leg of her Celine of July tour, she, in fact, was singing about her "big-assed" partner, pulled into a full house (about 5,000 fans).

Accompanied by two musicians and three back-up singers, she sang a dynamic, raucous show, scored other rounds of photos, posing, applause.

Don't miss it! Her performance, the most recent, took place at the Casino at the Forum. Dion said she often sings about 13 to 14 songs and takes a lot of time for her own security.

The spotlight is on her for the moment, a show made during the concert had been scheduled for March 2 (she cancelled). It would be worth the wait, Dion said, because after months of touring, she missed the audience like there it wouldn't.

had been cancelled.

The show and Celine's Jealousy winning songs, released last year, were the most successful in her career.

She won the award with her song "Jealousy" (the album "Jealousy" was released last year).
